

Collaborative Associates

- Merlin Productions is an award-winning full-service video production company specializing in corporate, sales, training and multimedia video production, as well as special broadcast programming. Based in San Diego, California, Merlin is owned and operated by Mitch Merback and Karen Franklin, both with more than 26 years of experience in all aspects of video production.

- For more than 27 years, Advanced Exhibit Methods has been serving a diverse client base at trade shows around the world. Founded by President Richard Diess, and located in Southern California, AEM offers effective, turnkey solutions for all your exhibit needs.

- Our mission is to provide our customers with the most viable growth and contractual options to assist them in achieving their business pursuits. We offer extensive managerial and negotiating experience that enables us to ensure the protection of our customers' investments through prudent and constructive change. When coupled with the Request for Equitable Adjustments (REAs), our customers are facilitated in reaching their financial targets and improving the overall health of their growing companies. The depth of experience, expertise and management skills possessed by GMC2 consultants and collaborative associates enables them to offer specific resources to their customers designed to offer a broad scope of assistance, or targeted problem solving. These resources include:

- Executive Management
- Economics Management
- Marketing and Communication
- Contracts and Pricing Management
- Financial Analysts
- Claims and Change Management
- Engineering, Quality Control and Operations Management
- Legal Resources